SAYS BILLS COVER PERSONAL GUILT

President Wilson Depends on That to Break up Anti-Trust Evils.

APPROVES MEASURE.

Four Bills Will be Consolidated Into One and May Reach White House Within Next Two Weeks.

Washington, March 17.—President Wilson, at a conference last night with the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Trusts, put the stamp of administration approval on the substance of the four bills to amend the antitrust laws, which the committee submitted in virtual final form. There will be another conference at the White House within a week, and members of the committee asserted last night that unless protracted discussion should be raised in the full committee when the measures are presented all four bills to strengthen the Sherman law, covering interlocking directorates, holding companies, trade relations and definitions of restraint of trade, would be reported to the House within a fortnight.

President Wilson indicated his belief that it would be better to consolidate all the bills into one in order to expedite legislation. The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee is understood to favor consolidation and that it will be effected by the House Judiciary committee practically is certain.

The President made a number of suggestions to the subcommittee which comprised Representatives Clayton, Alabama; Carlin, Virginia, and Floyd, Arkansas. He insisted that personal guilt of individuals in control of corporations should be prescribed in every bill, in order to break up the evils that have grown under the present antitrust laws. The committee will revise the bills with this in view, and talk with the President again before submitting the measures to the full committee and to the House. The draft of the holding corporation bill had been prepared just before the conference. The measure would make unlawful these holding companies that combine the stock of corporations so as to lessen competition, but would not affect companies which held the stock of corporations that form essential parts of their business. Holding companies that are entirely for investment, and not for business directly, are not prohibited. This would permit companies like the big insurance concerns to hold the stocks of corporations which are not competitors.

The committee believes that in this bill it has solved the problem of discriminating between the holding company, operating by combining a number of competitors into one company, and to corporations that have been compelled to combine a number of concerns that are not competitors, but whose combination is necessary in order to make a unit, or whole, as in the case of an oil company combined with a pipe line company, a producing oil company and a refining oil company, all making one legitimate oil business.

DEBT COMMISSION.

Called to Consider New Move by West Virginia to Reopen Famous Litigation.

Richmond, Va., March 17.— The Virginia Debt Commission met today at the Jefferson Hotel to consider the last move made by West Virginia in the famous debt litigation, its notice that it will enter a motion in the United States Supreme Court on march 23rd to reopen the entire case. In an opinion handed down in March, 1911, the Supreme Court established West Virginia's indebtedness to Virginia at $7,182,507.46. No settlement of the judgment has been made, and there is now pendnig before the court a motion by Virginia for a final decree.

As an offset to the entering of the final decree, which is to be delivered by the court on April 13, West Virginia will attempt on March 23rd to reopen the entire proceedings. Notice of such intention was served on Attorney-general John Garland Pollard last week by the Assistant Attorney-General of West Virginia.

caseg shr dmt hhm mhtt mh mhtt

West Virginia is basing its plea for a reopening on the claim to a portion of the assets of the State of Virginia in 1863 at the time of the separation of the two states. It claims the same portion of Virginia's assets as the Supreme Court said it should bear of Virginia's public debt, which was about 23 per cent. West Virginia has offered to compromise the settlement for $2,300,000, but the proposal was refused.

The members of the Virginia Debt Commission are: John B. Moon, chairman; Henry H. Downing, William F. Rhea, Randolph Harrison, Henry T. Wickham, J. Thompson Brown, Hal D. Flood and Joseph Button, secretary. Major William A. Anderson is counsel for the commission, and Major Holmes Conrad is counsel for the bondholders.

REV. DR. JOEL SWARTZ DEAD.

Theologian, Educator And Writer Was Nearly 87 Years Old.

Baltimore, March 17.—Rev. Dr. Joel Swartz, theologian, educator and writer, died yesterday morning at Windsor Park, Walbrook, the residence of his son, Prof. Charles K. Swartz, of the faculty of John Hopkins University.

Dr. Swartz was born near Strasburg, Va., August 18, 1827. He graduated from Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio, in 1854, and entered the ministry of the Lutheran Church of this city. He served congregations of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Cincinnati, Carlisle, Pa., Williamsport, Pa., Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Gettysburg, Pa. He resigned his Baltimore pastorate to become professor of homiletics and hermeneutics in Wittenberg Lutheran Theological Seminary at Springfield, Ohio. He was chairman of the committee that prepared the General Synod's Book of Worship.

Twenty years ago Dr. Swartz affiliated with the Congregational Church and since then had held pastorates in Steubenville, Ohio, Devon, Pa., and St. Louis, Mo., being actively engaged in the work of the ministry until he was nearly 85 years old. After a brief residence in Florida, where he went when his health began to fail, Dr. Swartz came to Baltimore nearly two years ago and has since made his home with his son, Professor Swartz.

Dr. Swartz published several volumes of poetry and was a prolific writer of devotional literature. He also was conspicuous as a worker in reform movements.

In 1854 Dr. Swartz married Miss Adelia Rosecrans, related to the family of General Rosecrans. Mrs. Swartz gained prominence for her work among the boys and girls who sold newspapers in this city during the Civil War. She established the Children's Industrial Home, a large institution at Harrisburg, Pa.

EARLY MORNING FIRE IN COLLEGE

Girls at Wellesley Turned Into Street in Half-Clad Condition.

400 ARE IN STAMPEDE.

Flames Rapidly Sweep Building as Young Women Rush Panic-Stricken to Places of Safety.

Wellesley, Mass., March 17.—Four hundred college girls, many of them only partly clad, escaped from the main dormitory and administration building of Wellesley College when fire broke out at 5:30 this morning and destroyed the building, with a loss expected to reach $200,000.

The fire is believed to have started in the chemical laboratory, on the fourth floor. Girls on the third floor were awakened by the smoke, and reported to the night watchman. The fire whipped throug hthe halls of the long building with great speed, and girls in the west wing were forced to hurry from the building in night attire.

A general alarm brought all the Wellesley fire apparatus, and later aid was summoned from Newton, but the building was almost entirely wrapped in flames before the firemen had their hose lines trained on the building. It was impossible to check the flames; and there was time to save only a few bits of furniture from the lower floor.

The building destroyed was the first built by the college. It had a frontage of 200 feet, and contained 200 dormitory rooms, a reception hall, dining room, phone offices for the college, laboratory and the general college administration offices.

Girls in the west wing of the big building, known as College Hall, rushed out partly clad, several of them badly frightened and crying. Superintendent Austin, fearing a panic, immediately sent a call to the Wellesley police station.

But the fire gong caused the girls in rooms some distance from the fire to fall into fire drill order, and to leave the building as though flames were not already mounting to the roof. The building was emptied in three minutes.

When the fire apparatus arrived, the roof of the west side of the building was already ablaze. Fire gongs attracted volunteers and the firemen, with these volunteers and the police, made sure that all the girls escaped.

Within half an hour, despite the efforts of the firemen, the flames had spread throughout the entire length of the building. The girls who had escaped from the burning building were cared for, and coffee and sandwiches were provided. Most of them insisted on seeing the fire through, however, and were joined by hundreds of girls from other college buildings.

The burned building was located on a hill overlooking Wellesley, and the flames were visible for miles. The dormitory and administration building was erected about forty years ago.

GIRL LEAPS OUT OF WINDOW.

Invalied Cries Out Prayer and Plunges to Pavement.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 17.—After uttering a prayer, Pauline Caplan, 20 years old, jumped from a second-story window at her home, No. 5140 Viola street last night and was seriously injured. She had been in poor health for some time, and lately she has been exceedingly nervous and expressed fear that she was being pursued by enemies. Last night her father heard her crying out a prayer, and, upon rushing to her room to see what was wrong, saw her leap from the window. He found her lying on the pavement in front of the house, and the police of the 29th district removed her to the West Philadelphia Hospital. She received many serious lacerations and contusions.

PAY FRATERNAL VISIT.

Alexandria Red Men Mingle With Washington Braves.

Past Sachems Charles Nagle and H. J. Butcher, of Osceola Tribe, No. 1, and Past Sachems R. C. Sullivan and W. L. Fink, of Seminole Tribe, No. 335, Improved Order of Red Men, visited Red Wing Tribe, No. 20, of Washington, last night.

The council sleep of Red Wing Tribe last night was a gala occasion for the Red Men of the Reservation of the District of Columbia, when all three degrees of the order were conferred upon a class of Pale Faces, by the Degree Team of Logan Tribe, which is noted for its proficiency in the degree work of the order.

Nearly every tribe in the District of Columbia were represented, besides quite a number of visitors from other tribes.

At the conclusion of the degree work, speeches were made by the visiting Red Men and local members, after which refreshments were served.

Red Wing Tribe was organized by Ernest R. Boyer, and instituted February 2nd, 1914. At the institution of the Tribe, Mr. Boyer was made a Past Sachem, and Representative to the Great Council, and at the Great Council sesion, held February 18th, Mr. Boyer was chosen as one of the Great Chiefs of that body, an honor not often attained without years of service in the order. Mr. Boyer is regarded as a successful organizer of fraternal orders, and in the last few months he has organized lodges of the orders in Washington.

In the near future Red Wing Tribe will pay a fraternal visit to the Alexandria Red Men.

ACCIDENT UNAVOIDABLE.

Officers of Steamer Newport News and Northumberland Blameless.

Supervising Inspector General George Uhler, of the Steamboat Inspection Service, last night announced that no further investigation of the collision between the steamers Newport News and Northumberland at the junction of Potomac river and Eastern Branch on the night of March 2 will be made.

Steamboat inspectors, who made a preliminary inquiry, examined witnesses and sought to learn whether any navigation laws had been violated, yesterday reported they had found masters and crews of both vessels not guilty of negligence or responsibility and this report automatically terminated the inquiry.

It was learned that the Newport News, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, disabled her steering gear just after leaving her dock. The Northumberland, of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia, had just been freed from a floe of ice in which she had been held all day and was making for her dock when the vessels collided. A gale was blowing and the fact that both steamers were handled with difficulty is said to have figured in the report of inspectors.

THREE KILLED BY CAVE-IN.

Foreman and Two Workmen Buried in Deep Trench.

Cumberland, Md., March 17.—Foreman D. M. Postelwaite and two alien workmen were killed under tons of earth yesterday evening by the cave-in of the sides of a depe trench being excavated at Paw Paw, W. Va., for a bridge pier on the new Baltimore & Ohio Railroad cut-off.

The men were in the trench, which was 30 feet long, 8 feet wide and 20 feet deep, when without warning, the sides gave way, piling the earth and rock on top of them. They were employed by the James F. McCabe Co. The men were at once put to work removing the debris, but the bodies were not recovered until late at night.

Wife Kills Husband.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 17.—Reversing the order in marital tragedies, Mrs. Ida Wildrig, thirty-six, shot and killed her husband and then shot herself. She may die.

Just before dawn Mrs. Wildrig appeared at the home of her brother-in-law, Giacomo Zenditti, found Wildrig there, and opened fire. She shot three times and Wildrig fell dead.

FRANCE FACES SERIOUS CRISIS

Far-Reaching Effects of Killing of Editor of the Paris Figaro.

CAFINET MAY RESIGN.

Mme. Caillaux Regrets She Killed Calmette, and Says She Merely Intended to Wound Him.

Paris, March 17.—Public indignation, at fever heat today over the sensational killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, by Mme. Caillaux, wife of the minister of finance, is practically demanding the resignation of the entire cabinet. Mme. Caillaux is confined in the St. Lazare woman's prison.

The death of Calmette, shortly after midnight, died with four bullet wounds in his chest, is expected to reveal a story of intrigue and feud that will stir France more deeply than anything since the Dreyfus case. Bitter political strife is predicted on every hand. Caillaux has submitted his resignation.

Government, social and political circles were stirred by the developments in the bitter feud between Caillaux and the editor, but standing above all was the fact that two women have been the forces behind the political warfare.

The former Mme. Dupre, who married and then was divorced by Caillaux, had been friendly with Calmette. She is believed to have furnished the editor with letters published in Figaro, which so aroused Mme. Caillaux that she took the editor's life.

The letters were written to the present Mme. Caillaux before she became the wife of the minister, and Mme. Dupre is believed to have turned them over to Calmette that she might be avenged.

Caillaux today was the most pitiful figure in all Paris. The press is merciless in its denunciation. The public is extremely hostile and the minister barely escaped being mobbed as he came from the prison last night after visiting his wife.

"I am determined that my resignation as Minister of Finance shall be accepted that I may devote my days and my nights to fighting for my wife," Caillaux said today. Dragged into a political fight and helpless to prevent the publication of private letters, she shall not suffer further humiliation so long as I have the strength to fight for her."

Caillaux spent a sleepless night at the home of a friend.

The night in the cell, with its harrowing aspects, lack of the luxurious surroundings and care to which she is accustomed, could not dim the striking beauty of Mme. Caillaux. Though pale and somewhat dishevelled, the beauty of the woman was so strong as to command every possible attention from her jailors.

She repeated today that she did not intend to kill Calmette, and deeply regretted her act. She first appealed to an attorney, in hope that some legal action might be taken to prevent the publication of letters written to her before she became Mme. Caillaux. Informed that nothing could be done she then decided to face Calmette in his office.

"I only expected to wound him," Mme. Caillaux said, "but I lost control of myself."

"I fired once. The meanness of it all, the thoughts of another woman probably furnishing my own personal letters for the entire country to read, welled up within me. I fired and fired again. I know not how many times."

Paris refused to show any sympathy for Mme Caillaux. The feeling against her is as bitter as that for her husband. Until midnight great crowds marched through the boulevards, shouting denunciations of Caillaux, whose ambition was to become president of the Republic.

Cries of "down with the assassin," "down with Caillaux," mingled with these demanding that Calmette be avenged.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. C. R. Stetson, of St. Mark's Church, Washington, will preach on St. Paul's Church tonight at 8 o'clock.

A. L. Cohen of Warrenton, Va., will open a ladies' and gents' furnishing store at 418 King street. The grand opening will be held on Saturday, April 4th.

The funeral of William Milstead, who died on the Potomac river Saturday afternoon was held this afternoon. Interment was in Bethel cemetery.

At a meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks held last night in their home on Prince street, a number of changes were made in the by-laws of that organization.

The annual election of officers of Martha Washington Chapter, No. 42, Order of the Eastern Star, wil be held tonight in Masonic Temple.

The local P. H. C. held an enthusiastic meeting last night at Pythian Hall. Nine candidates were initiated. After the meeting an oyster supper was served at Francis's oyster parlor.

Rev. O. W. Triplett has sold to Thomas P. Henderson a lot of ground on the north side of King street, between West and Peyton streets.

F. B. Howard & Son have just received 100 dozen strictly fresh Coan River eggs, which they offer for sale at 26 cents a dozen.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES.

Confirmation services were held at St. George's Church, Farlee, near Bullston, Alexandria county, last night. The rite of confirmation was administered by Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., suffragan bishop of Pennsylvania, at the request of Bishop Gibson, on account of the latter's condition of health. There were ten candidates confirmed. A large congregation attended the services. The work at Farlee is now in charge of Mr. Parker, a former minister of the Methodist Church, who is now studying for the Episcopal ministry at the Seminary near this city. The number of candidates shows the good work that Mr. Parker is doing at that place.

WIND SCATTERS KELLY ARMY.

Not More than 300 Left in Camp Near Sacramento.

Sacramento, Cal., March 17.— A strong north wind last night did more to solve the problem presented by "General" Kelly's army of unemployed than any human agency has yet been able to accomplish.

Camped on the levee across the Sacramento river from this city, with no protection from the wind-driven sands, the army disintegrated rapidly during Sunday night and it was estimated yesterday that 300 remained out of the 1,500 that came to Sacramento a week ago. Hunger also had much to do with the desertions.

As the novelty of the army's presence wore off food contributions ceased. The march to Washington probably will be abandoned and the remnants of the army scatter.

A hunger strike was threatened yesterday. A few loaves of bread was all the food sent across the river up to noon and the more determined among the men said they would starve until they had to be taken to hospitals.

PRISON NO TERROR FOR MOTHER JONES

Aged Strike Leader Announces Her Purpose to Return to Trinidad.

DEFIES THE MILITARY.

Friend of Miners Claims She Was Deported—Her Departure Attended With Great Secrecy.

Denver, Col., March 17.—"I will go back to Trinidad before the end of this week." This was the declaration made tonight by "Mother" Jones, 82 years old, leader of the striking coal miners, who was released Tuesday night from the Trinidad hospital, where she had been a military prisoner since January 12, and brought to Denver. The manner in which she left the camp was attended with great secrecy.

"I fully expect to be returned to prison when I reach the strike zone, but no governor nor President can make me abandon my constitutional right as a citizen to go where I please. So long as I live I shall refuse to submit to military despotism."

"Mother" Jones made this statement after an interview with Gover Ammons yesterday. She reached Denver yesterday. There is a radical difference between the statement of "Mother" Jones and the State authorities, as to the manner in which she left the hospital.

The strike leader declares she simply was deported; that she was brought to Denver under military escort and at State expense, without having ever given her consent to leaving the strike zone.

Governor Ammons and Adjutant-General John Chase said "Mother" Jones had expressed willingness to leave the strike zone if Governor Ammons' would grant her an interview.

Horace N. Hawkins, attorney for the strikers, entered the controversy with the statement that he told the Governor "Mother" Jones had not asked for an interview, but that she would call on the Governor if invited to do so. Hawkins declared then that the governor had invited the strike leader to call upon him.

"Mother" Jones told the governor, whom she held responsible for her imprisonment and many other events in the history of the strike, which she declares discreditable to the State, that she had been deported against her will. She said she would return to Trinidad whenever she pleased. The governor replied he hoped she would not violate the law or do anything to cause disorder in the strike zone. There was a lengthy argument over constitutional rights, and the authority of the militia to make arrests.

In the course of the interview w. the governor, the strike leaders served notice they would make an effort to restore the Lower Forbes tent colony, where tents recently were taken down by the militia.

Attorney Hawkins declared it his opinion that the authorities had brought "Mother" Jones here and released her to block an appeal to the Supreme Court in the application for a writ of habeas corpus, recently denied by District Judge A. W. McHendrie, at Trinidad.

In declaring she would return to Trinidad, Mrs. Jones said she wished to look after the comfort of the women and children of the strikers, and, particularly to establish schools for those in the tent colonies.

THE LATE DR. HOUSTON.

Deceased Was Born in Alexandria Nearly Sixty-Seven Years Ago.

Dr. Edwin J. Houston, for 26 years a professor of physics at the Central High School, Philadelphia, and beloved by thousands of students and graduates for his kindly personality, died suddenly from heart disease a few days ago, at his home, in that city. He was an educator of note, one of the foremost electrical engineers and the author of many books on scientific subjects.

Doctor Houston was the son of the late John Mason and Mary Larmour Houston, and a relative of Mr. William M. Larmour, a well-known and esteemed Alexandrian. He was born in Alexandria, Va., July 9, 1847, and went to Philadelphia, when a boy. He was educated at the Central High School.

Doctor Houston was an emeritus professor of physics at Franklin Institute; professor of physics at Medico-Chirurgical College; a member and twice president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and a member of the American Institute of Mining engineers and the American Philosophical Society. He is survived by a brother, Francis Houston, of Philadelphia, and two sisters.

Two Washingtonians, Visitors to North Lee Street, Before Police Court

Jack Haywood and C. T. McDonold, two Washingtonians, arrived in this city late last night and wended their way to the "red light" district, where Haywood made an attack on two women. He subsequently left the house and went to the street and pushed his fist through a pane of glass as a reminder that he had been there.

Officers Roland and Nicholson found the men at King and Royal streets and placed them under arrest. Having no money to leave as collateral, they passed the remainder of the night in cells at the station house.

When brought before the bar this morning the inmates of the house testified that Haywood was alone responsible for the disorder, and McDonald averred that he was endeavored to calm his irate companion. Haywood was fined $20 and McDonald was dismissed. The former was unable to pay the assessment and was loccked up, and McDonald went back to Washington for the purpose of raising the sum required before Haywood can be released.

CITY GIVEN JURISDICTION.

Land Recently Purchased for School Purposes Under Control of City.

Among the bills introduced by Delegate J. Fred Birrell, of this city, and passed at the session of the State legislature just before adjournment Saturday, is one authorizing the city of Alexandria to control property in Alexandria county for high school purposes.

The city two years ago purchased about ten acres of land just beyond the corporate line in the expectation that annexation proceedings then in progress would result in the extension of the limits of the city.

The annexation case was decided against the city and has been carried to the State Suprme Court of Appeals.

In the meantime, however, under the terms of Mr. Birrell's bill, the city may build a high school on the land in question.

MOTION IS REFUSED.

Annexation Case Continued by Court of Appeals to November.

The Supreme Court of Appeals, sitting in Richmond, has refused the request of the attorneys of the city of Alexandria to have its appeal from a decision of Judge Bennett T. Godon, in the annexation case, removed from Richmond to the Wytheville, Va., docket so that the case could be argued in that city during the summer term.

A decision was handed down yesterday refusing the motion and continuing the case until the November term of the court in Richmond.

Under this ruling it will be late in December before the case is reached on the docket and a decision cannot be expected until January.

Samuel G. Brent and Samuel P. Fisher, representing the city of Alexandria went to Richmond to present the motion to the Supreme Court.

FALL OF A CHIMNEY.

Some excitement was caused on Wilkes street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, between ten and eleven o'clock last night by the fall of a chimney of a house occupied by a colored family on the north side of the street. Fortunately the inmates escaped injury, although the falling bricks demolished the roof and entered the floor beneath. The Columbia wagon with several men went to the scene, as it was supposed fire would follow, but after assuring themselves that no danger was to be anticipated from that source, the members of the company returned to the engine house.

NEW AQUEDUCT BRIDGE

Representative Carlin Shows Present Structure Has Outlived Day of Usefulness

Representative Carlin, who has introduced a bill for a new Aqueduct bridge to take the place of the present structure across the Potomac, yesterday expressed the belief that favorable action would be had in Congress at this session. If members of Congress had taken the opportunity, he said, to visit this structure during the recent ice gorge—which has not yet disappeared—they would realize forcibly the imperative necessity of a bridge at this point that can withstand such a severe test without alarming the city with the fear that it was likely o give way at any moment.

In the event of such an accident a great section of Virginia would be cut off from the Capital, and thousands of people who reside on the other side of the river and are employed in or do business in Washington would be put to great expense and inconvenience. Mr. Carlin is giving this matter his personal attention, which gives it impetus both in committee and on the floor of the House.

"It is agreed by everybody familiar with the present structure," said Mr. Carlin yesterday, "that it has outlived its usefulness, and does not meet the requirements of the enormous travel, either in size or safety.

"That the bridge is unsafe, is not denied, and a large sum of money will be necessary annually to keep the present structure in use, which expenditure would be avoided by the construction of a modern and safe structure.

"I introduced the bill for the construction of a new bridge and left its location to the discretion of the Secretary of War. The bill authorizes the expenditure of $1,500,000, and appropriates immediately the sum of $500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the securing of proper plans, and for the payment of property for abutment, if such property is found necessary, and to begin the construction immediately.

"The sum of $1,500,000 is an unofficial estimate of the cost of a new structure which would meet the requirements but sufficiently accurate to justify the belief that the bridge could be built within this figure. The bill provides for the removal of the present structure, and its sale, and for covering the proceeds thereof, if any, into the United States Treasury.

"I am very hopeful, in view of the alarming condition of the present structure, that Congress may immediately meet the necessity by appropriating the money desired. I feel confident that so soon as the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, to whom this bill has been referred, has had an opportunity to consider it, a favorable report will be made"

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Arrangements have been completed for the banquet to be held in the Hotel Rammel by Alexandria Division, No. 1, A. O. H., tonight. Representatives A. B. Walsh and Murray will be the speakers on the occasion, and there will also be music and singing.

The 17th of March is the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick.

FUNERAL OF PRESIDENT.

The Gazette has received from P. A. Haislip, of La Platte, Md., a copy of the Alexandria Gazette of April 9th, 1841, which contains an account of the funeral of President Harrison and the taking of the oath of office by President Tyler. At that time the Gazette was the only daily newspaper in the District of Columbia. The paper has been preserved for many years in the desk of Mr. Haislip's grandfather.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

THIEF IS SEALED IN CAR.

Accused of Stealing Clothing, Man Narrowly Escapes Death in Experience.

Richmond, Va., March 17.—How a thief, who entered a freight car in the 17th street yards of the Chesapeake and Ohio in this city, was locked in accidentally and held a prisoner for forty-eight hours, when he was taken from the car at Gordonsville nearly dead, was made known yesterday by M. L. Angle, detective for the railroad.

When dragged from the car and revived, the man described himself as Harry Luck, 21 years old of New York. He had suffered keenly from lack of food and water and from exposure. Luck was sentenced by a Gordinsville magistrate to six months on the public roads.

Angle said he would have the man brought here at the expiration of his sentence and tried for car-breaking. Luck entered a car of merchandise and when found he was wearing six shirts, a pair of shoes a hat, and other things, all said to have been stolen.

Investigation by Detective Angle in this city, disclosed that the door of the car was noticed by the conductor of the train to be open just before the conductor gave the signal for the train's departure. Seal Clerk Tyler was summoned and the door was sealed. In another moment the train steamed away.

It is supposed Luck was fully aware that he was being sealed inside the car, but was afraid to reveal his presence for fear of the consequences. The car remained closed until its arrival in Gordonsville two days later. Luck was unconscious when found and for a time it was thought he would die.

UNDESIRABLES IN CHURCH.

Richmond Pastor Expresses a Frank Opinion.

That the dishonest politician and other evildoers who have entrenched themselves behind the church, should not be allowed to hold membership in the church, but that there should be a general housecleaning to purge it of all such people, was the declaration of the Rev. W. C. James, D. D., Sunday night at Grove Avenue Baptist Church.

Such people, said Dr. James, have no place rightfully in the church, and the church is no place for them. "Many good people who are outside of the church would come into the church and would make good church members, I am certain," he said, "but for the fact that when they pay a visit to the church and see some deacon or other officer of the church whom they know to be thoroughly bad carrying around the collection plate or performing some other such service. And they thnik to themselves, 'well if that's the best that they've got, I might as well stay out of the church.' These people are people of refinement and they are naturally disgusted to see men of that kind in the church."

Dr. James' sermon followed along the line that men outside of the church here interested in religion.

"GETS-IT" FOR CORNS ON YOUR PIGGY-WIGGIES !

Quit Puttering With Corns. Use This Sure, New-Plan Cure.

A few drops of "GETS-IT", the biggest seller in the world today of any corn remedy, is enough to spell positive doom to the fiercest corn that ever cemented itself to a toe. It's good-bye Johnnie. You apply "GETS-IT" in two seconds—no fussing with plasters that don't stay put, with salves that make corn "pull" and make the toe beefy and raw, with knives, scissors, razors and diggers that make corns grow faster and that may cause blood poison from corn-cutting and corn-bleeding. "GETS-IT" shrivels up the corns, they come right off. That's the new principle. It's just common sense. No more corn-pains. "GETS-IT" is safe, and never hurts the flesh. Get rid of corns and calluses.

"GETS-IT" is sold at 25c a bottle by all druggists, or sent direct if you wish, from E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. (87).

SKULL CRUSHED BY BAT.

Negro's Head Batted in at Ball Game—Is Dying at Hospital.

Richmond, Va., March 17.—One negro, Joseph Green, dying in the city hospital with a fractured skull and another negro, Mandy Thomas, who hit him, being sought by the Henrico police, is the aftermath of a negro baseball game which was engaged in by negroes on Broad Street Road Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock.

The negroes had hardly started playing when Thomas spied Green and went after him with a baseball bat. Whirling the club about his head several times, without a word of warning, he brought it down with tremendous force on the head of Green twice.

Green was knocked unconscious. In the excitement Thomas took to his heels and got away. Examination showed that the back of Green's head had been crushed in by the blows. He is not expected to live.

Henrico police are on the trail of Thomas and expect to have him in custody soon. He claimed that Green had shot at him the evening before.

NAKED MAN ON STREET CAR.

Richmond Man Suddenly Becomes Insane Over Religion.

Richmond, Va., March 17.—Business worry and religious mania caused A. F. Gundlach, 30 years old, a Church Hill grocer, to become suddenly insane yesterday afternoon.

"The Redeemer is coming!" yelled Gundlach, as he dashed naked from his store into the street. He walked six squares unmolested, denouncing a minister. He then boarded a street car containing 50 passengers, the majority of whom were women. There was a wild scramble for the exits, the conductor and motorman joining those who left the car. He was finally overcome and sent to the police station, where clothing was furnished him. A commission in lunacy will inquire into his sanity.

RUNOVER SESSION.

Speaker Cox Placed Signature on Several Measures Yesterday.

Richmond, Va., March 17.—With only a few members of either branch present the General Assembly began its constructive session of six days, made mandatory by the constitution, yesterday. It will continue until Friday. This six-day runover is for the purpose of correcting errors in bills and giving the officers of the two branches a chance to sign the measures.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock, while the House began at 10 o'clock. The senators who remained were in a high good humor and much fun was indulged in. Senator Lesner moved that the vote by which the enabling act was passed be reconsidered. Senator Mapp objected and asked that the red light bill and the anti-gambling bill be taken up and all three considered at a time. This brought out a hearty laugh. Senator Hart moved that Dr. James Cannon, Jr., be invited to a seat on the floor of the senate. The motion, however, was not put.

In the House the chair was vacated until 4 o'clock, and when the House convened in the afternoon, Speaker Cox went to work on the bills and signed a large number. So far Governor Stuart has not vetoed any measures, but it is thought several will come under the ban before he has finished looking over the list.

Both branches of the General Assembly continue in constructive session until Friday, despite the fact that no quorum is present. This fact can only be ascertained by a roll call, but it is certain that this will not be ordered. No bills can be considered for passage, the sessions being only perfunctory.

With the galleries devoid of guests and with only a few members present, the house had great fun. Orders were issued for the clearance of the galleries and Colonel Newhouse, doorkeeper, brought forth a hearty laugh when he thumped the floor with his cane, repeatedly calling for order.

Buchanan Not in Race.

Richmond, Va., March 17.—Despite the fact that he has been endorsed by the Democrats of one or two counties of Southwest Virginia. B. F. Buchanan, of Marion, said yesterday he would not be a candidate to succeed C. Bascomb Slemp in Congress, R. Tate Irvin being regarded as the logical man for the nomination.

The Democrats of Tazewell county met last week and elected delegates to the Ninth district congressional convention to be held in Bristol next Wednesday, and most of the delegates present expressed favor for Senator Buchanan for the nomination for Congress.

Senator Buchanan said that while he appreciated the support given him and would do all he could in behalf of the success of his party in the Ninth district, he would not be a candidate, but should conditions so change as to give him the nomination he would accept it and serve his constituents to the best of his ability.

Although several other prominent Democrats have been mentioned for the honor, it is generally conceded that Mr. Irvine will be nominated at the Bristol convention.

IRELAND'S PATRON SAINT.

St. Patrick's Day, meteorologically, has been all that could have been expected, considering the fact that the equinoctial period is upon us, when all the vagaries of the weather are likely to be in evidence at this time.

For many years the parody on the day was more generally in evidence, but at present the buffoonry of practical jokers has given way to the observance of the occasion decently and in order, and the celebration is not confined to any one sect, but its coming is made an occasion for many happy gatherings.

While thousands of patriotic Irish, who lived in earnest hopes of seeing Hibernia free from the shackles of England have gone down to their graves honored, England's colors are still flaunted over the Emerald Isle, but the green remains in the hearts of not only the great majority who are still in the old country, but among their offspring in the new world, thousands of whom wore the shamrock today.

While the foundation of St. Patrick's Day is of a spirituel origin, its celebration arouses a national spirit, also, which enthuses all Irishmen, and in Alexandria and every city on the American continent addresses will be delivered tonight in which patriotism will animate many native and to the manner born as well as their descendants.

Erin's colors were unfurled to the wind in Alexandria at an early hour this morning, and the Irish harp has been hailed with enthusiasm by all classes.

While the Trojans were compelled to free from their own country, their city having been burned by invaders, a corporal's guard of that sturdy race formed the nucleus of what proved to be the greatest universal power in the world's history. While far away from home, the Palladium always enthused the wanderers. It is so with the sons and daughters of Erin. Though Ireland is still wearing "England's cruel red," her sons form a large percentage of the people of the United States, to the growth and prosperity of which they have ever contributed their energy and patriotism.

FRANCE ENTERS ANOTHER CRISIS.

The killing yesterday of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Figaro, by Mme. Caillaux, wife of a member of the French Cabinet, has caused a great sensation throughout the country, and cries for vengeance are ascending in every section of the republic. Caillaux has resigned and the people are demanding that the other members turn over their portfolios. The murder of the editor has thrown upon the screen a story of bitter feud and political intrigue, with women as powerful directors of men's fates. The murderess, within the shadow of the guillotine, is professing regret at the death of her victim, she claiming she did not desire to end his career, but to injure him.

Forty-four years ago, Victor Noir, a Parisian editor, popular with the masses, was shot and killed by Prince Pierre Napoleon, a cousin of Napoleon the Third. The Emperor was at that time experiencing the fickleness of the French nation, and this unfortunate affair sent his thermometer down further.

It is believed by many that Napoleon declared war on Prussia at that time, hoping that he would develop military skill, as he had previously done at Solferino, and by gaining territory from Prussia would be enabled to strengthen his waning popularity. Hence he declared war probably upon the most frivolous pretense ever recorded in history.

The result was disastrous to him and his people. After a short campaign, the Prussians, captured Paris and imposed the most humiliating terms upon the French.

The killing of Calmette may be far-reaching, and in the excitement which has followed there is no telling what thoughtlessness the storm-tossed people of France may not manifest.

NEARLY KILLED BY NEGRO.

Fight in Mow Ends With Serious Toss to Barnyard.

Trenton, N. J., March 17.—In a fierce fight with a negro in the hay loft of the barn of the Castanea Dairy Company, early yesterday morning, Harry Swangler, of this city, was tossed bodily to the stable yard and left for dead, while his assailant fled and is now being sought by the police of Trenton and of Mercer county.

Swangler was found unconscious shortly after the fight. He was removed to a Trenton Hospital and is in a serious condition, his spine being injured. Swangler is unable to give any details of the fight, except that he entered the mow and found the strange negro there.

Woman Killed by Train.

Wantage, N. J., March 17.—Trapped in a deep railroad cut walled with snowbanks, Miss Margaret Brinx and Miss Loretta McHugh, school teachers, tried to save themselves from an approaching train by digging their feet into the snow and clinging to the drifttop.

Miss McHugh managed to do it, but the engine of a Susquehanna express caught the skirtt of Miss Brink and she was dragged under the wheels. She died instantly.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

May Help You if Lungs Are Affected

Proper diet, fresh air and temperate habits are beneficial to persons suffering from Lung Trouble; but in a great many instances reports show that the addition of a medicine for this affection has materially helped in bringing about recovery. For more than fifteen years Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, has accomplished good results. Read what it did in this case:—

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, March, 1909, and September, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which confined me several weeks, each time to my bed. My doctor advised me to go West. In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alterative for my health."

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Monday, March 16th, 1914. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Edwin A. Howard,
Vs.
Ethel Howard.

IN CHANCERY.

This cause coming on to be heard this 16th day of March, 1914, upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 16th day of March, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment. An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Ethel Howard, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that she is a non-resident of said State, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after the publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for 4 successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at No. 310 Seaton Place, Northwest, Washington, D. C., her last known place of abode.

We Promise You Relief from All Stomach Troubles— Or Your Money Back

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and dyspepsia. We urge you to try it at our risk. If it doesn't relieve you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us—your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it to be better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove our faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Delays Are Dangerous

Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

You Risk No Money

Our willingness to have you use Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk proves our faith in them. We always sell them this way, and it is because we know that they have greatly benefited scores of sufferers to whom we have sold them. There's no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. You needn't sign anything. Your word is enough for us. We know that when they help you you will consider it money well spent even if they had cost you ten times as much. If they don't help you, the money you paid for them is yours, and we want you to have it.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores—the World's Greatest Drug Stores. In convenient boxes—three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1.00

Plain Truth That's Worth Money.

Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough and cold is just practical common sense. It is exactly made to stop a cough and check a cold and it prevents lagrippe, bronchitis or pneumonia. F. F. Monahan, Monomie, Wis., says: "I am exposed to all kinds of weather and I find Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always fixes me up in good shape when I catch cold or have a bad cough, I recommend it gladly." Refuse substitutes. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

When you buy Foley's Honey and Tar Compound because just a few doses stop the cough and heals the cold, one bottle lasts a long time, and the last dose is as good as the first. Mrs. SSS 20 Van Buren St., Kingston, N .Y., says: "Father had lagrippe and his cough was something terrible and he could not sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stopped his coughing, but it brought back my voice to me after a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

IN CHANCERY

Upon application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 7th day of February, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and for general relief. An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant Joseph Johnston, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and is not a resident of the State; it is ordered, that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the court House of the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the said order of publication be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of the said City, addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at Barracks, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

The retail merchant who has Bell telephone service has an always-open door. In stormy weather and in sunshine the telephone provides a means of receiving orders.

Then, there is the convenience of it to the retail merchant in placing rush orders with the wholesale house.

Lastly, the telephone in a retail store gives that store a certain prestige over the stores without telephone service.

WAS IN 52 BATTLES.

Samuel White Successful as Tiller of Soil in Fluvanna.

Fork Union, Va., March 17.—Samuel White, a Confederate veteran, living near here, who is a successful farmer, was in 52 battles in the war between the states. He saw service in most of the big battles, such as the Battle of Gettysburg, Sharpsburg and the battles around Richmond. Mr. White, with his command following up the defeated federal troops, fired after a fleeing soldier and got his man after a battle. Mr. White attended the Gettysburg reunion last summer.

WHEN YOU'RE SICK YOUR WAGES STOP.

You know what this means—misery—worry—big bills—debt!

You know you can't afford to get sick. Keeping in good health means food and clothing for you and your family. It's up to you to take care of yourself. It's up to you, whenever you don't feel right, to take something to make you right, to strengthen you, build you up, ward off worse sickness—protect you and your family. That thing we have in Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. In offering it to you we protect you against money-risk, by personally promising you that, if it does not restore your health, we will give back your money without word or question. We believe it is the best builder of health, energy and strength you can get. It is helping many of your neighbors. If it don't help you, we will give back your money.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is composed of pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites. Each has long been endorsed by succesful physicians. Here they are for the first time combined. The result is a remarkable nerve, blood and strength-building remedy that is both food and medicine. For all who are nervous, run-down and debilitated—no matter what the cause, for old people; for convalescents; for puny children, we know of nothing that will give health and strength as quickly as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It's a real builder of good blood, strong muscles, good digestion. Pleasant to take, it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. If you don't feel well, economize both money and strength by beginning today to take Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. Sold only at the Rexall Stores, and in this town only by Wm. P. Taylor, druggist, 616 King street.

ANCIENT BURIAL CUSTOM.

Living Interred With Dead as in Days of Sinbad the Sailor.

London, March 17.—P. Amaury Talbot, of the Nigerian political service, who has traveled much through Africa studying the various tribes, says the Ibihios, natives of southern Nigeria, who are of such low type that they are called "mud-fish," rank among the most ancient of southern Nigerian tribes, and speak different dialects of a very old and primitive tongue. Witch doctors dominate the life of the race.

Quaint burial customs prevail. Slaves are frequently sacrificed at the death of a chief and buried with him. Until prohibited by the government, chiefs were buried in their houses with strange ritual and sacrifice. A burial chamber was prepared underneath one of the rooms, and in this the chief's body was placed. His best loved wife and two of the most beautiful of his slaves entered the room and seated themselves at a table opposite their lord. After some ceremonial all but the women withdrew, the chamber was sealed up and the unfortunate women were left to a lingering death.

NEWS OF THE DAYS

Sir John Murray, the noted naturalist and oceanographer, was killed yesterday near his home, Challenger Lodge, Wardie, Edinburgh, in a motorcar accident which occurred while his daughter, Rhoda, was driving. The car swerved, climbed a high bank and turned over. The occupants were thrown out and Sir John was instantly killed.

Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Figaro, was shot yesterday by Mme. Henrfiette Caillaux, wife of Joseph Caillaux, the French minister of finance. He died last night. Mme. Caillaux went to the office of the Figaro to carry out an act of vengeance against M. Calmette, who had been waging a campaign, characterized by great bitterness, against the minister of finance. Having committed the deed, Mme. Caillaux submitted to arrest, and while employes in the Figaro office were taking the pistol from her hands she said: "Since there is no justice in this country, I take upon myself an act of justice. Take me where you will."

MINISTER BLAMES CHOIR.

Forced Him to Demand Order, Says Rev. Edward Galleher.

Washington, March 17.—Church circles of Washington are stirred by the strike of the choir of Ryland Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday morning and by the charges and counter-charges that have been subsequently made by the Rev. Edward Galleher, the pastor and a former Baltimorean, on the one hand, and by the members of the choir on the other.

The singers insist that Mr. Galleher publicly rebuked, them without any cause or excuse, and that he had refused to make any apologies for his action. This, they said, had caused them to quit.

The minister declares that he was so annoyed by the loud talking in his choir that he was not only disturbed but that members of the congregation had complained to him and urged him to put an end to the annoyances.

Out of this controversy has come the information that Mr. Galleher is soon to leave the Ryland Methodist Church and is only waiting for the district conference at Cumberland before his new charge is to be announced.

Mr. Galleher said: "The statements that I upbraided my congregation or the choir as a whole are unfounded. I was in the midst of my sermon when repeated murmurings disturbed me. I made a general request for order and proceeded, only to be further interrupted. I repeated my request, and when that was not heeded directed my attention to the choir and demanded order. It was then accorded, and perfect order at that."

MISSING MAN FOUND DEAD.

Tracks in Snow Led Daughter to Where He Perished.

Wilmington, Del., March 17.—Missing since Saturday night, the body of Edward Lambert, the middle-aged negro, of Porter Station, was found yesterday afternoon in a field on Dr J. C. McCoy's farm, near Kirkwood. His daughter Ethel, and hos son Harry Lambert, who had been searching for him, made the discovery. Coroner Spring will make an investigation, although it is reported that the man's death was due to exposure.

Saturday night Lambert and a man named Hutchinson were seen crossing the fields on the McCoy farm, but Lambert never reached his home. Yesterday when his daughter learned this fact, she found tracks in the soft snow, and by following them came upon the corpse.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF AN UNDIVIDED ONE-HALF INTEREST OF A CERTAIN FARM IN THE COUNTY OF ALEXANDRIA, STATE OF VIRGINIA, LOCATED NEAR CLARENDON.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in Deed Book 136, page 150, of the Land Records of the County of Alexandria, State of Virginia, default having been made in the payment of the debt secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction in front of the premises on an undivided one-half interest in the following property situated in the county of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, containing 25.536 acres of land described as follows:

THE 27th DAY OF MARCH, 1914,

Beginning at a stone mentioned in the plat of survey made by George E. Garrett, County Surveyor, February 15, 1905, and filed in Court in the suit of Birch et al., vs. Alexander et al., in the Circuit court of Alexandria County, in the State of Virginia, and also recorded in the Land Records of said County, said stone being described in plat survey as "Stone—at angle in Hunter & Taylor B'd'y'l" and running thence southwestwardly 1379.08 feet to the point "S" said "S" being described in said plat of survey as "Stone—corner as claimed by Birch;" thence running northwestwardly 816.14 feet to the point described in said plat of survey as "E"; running thence 76 degrees 35 1-2 minutes East, 1420.18 feet; and running thence South 15 degrees 15 minutes East, 775.5 feet to the point of beginning, being the area marked "D" on said plat of survey.

This interest will be sold subject to an existing indebtedness of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, secured by a first deed of trust upon said property. Terms of sale, all cash. The terms of sale must be complied with in 30 days after the day of sale, otherwise the said undivided interest will be resold at the risk and cost of the defaulting purchaser, after ten day's re-advertisement thereof. A deposit of two hundred and fifty ($250) dollars will be required at the time of sale. Taxes and all other charges against the property will be adjusted to the date of the transfer of the title to the purchaser, the title to be good or otherwise the sale will be declared off, and the deposit refunded to the purchaser. All costs of conveyancing, Notary fees, and other costs attending the transfer of the title shall be borne by the purchaser.
